Contribution to the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals

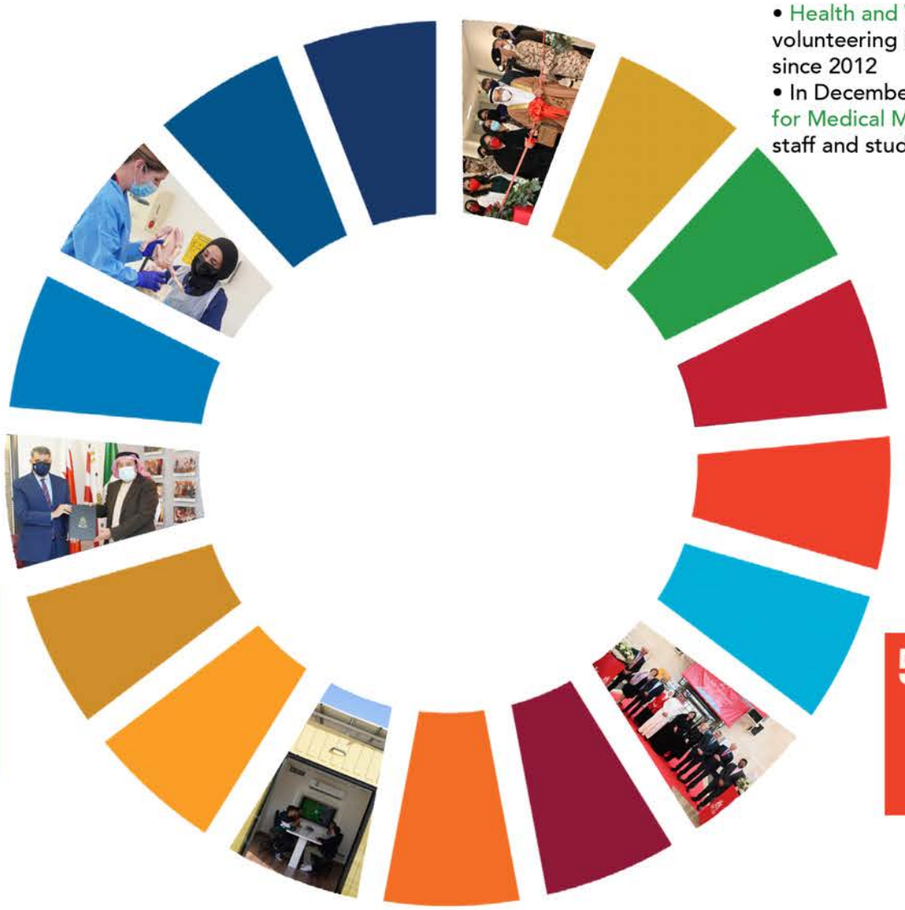
SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS

17 PARTNERSHIPS FOR THE GOALS

- Six Partner Hospitals in Bahrain
- Six Agreements to support Community Service nationally and internationally in the coming year
- WHO EMRO Healthy Universities guest speaker hosted in September 2022
- Cooperation Agreement signed with Primary Healthcare Centres in October 2022 to support education, training and scientific research
- Innovative "Future of Nurses Bahrain" initiative under the Patronage of the Chairman of Supreme Council of Health widening access to nursing careers in Bahrain since 2022

3 GOOD HEALTH AND WELL-BEING

- Launch of Bahrain's first Biomolecular and Clinical Research Centre with seven Doctors of Philosophy (PhD holders) and five Postdoctorates dedicated to Diabetes, the most prevalent disease nationally
- Fast-growing Health Research: 241 publications, 67% open access, 6,624 citations and 73% international collaboration (Source: SciVal 2017-2021)
- 13th Conferring Ceremony held in June 2022 reaching a total of 2,746 Alumni health practitioners in medicine, nursing and midwifery and postgraduate degrees in healthcare active in 35 countries
- Health and Wellbeing in the community: over 200 events and over 11,000 volunteering hours contributed to supporting local and international communities since 2012
- In December 2021, RCSI Bahrain received the 'Prince Salman bin Hamad Medal for Medical Merit' as a national recognition of all the efforts made by RCSI Bahrain staff and students to support the health sector during the COVID-19 pandemic



12 RESPONSIBLE CONSUMPTION AND PRODUCTION

- Reduce, Reuse, Recycle policy across campus
- Lighting and Temperature controls in place, paperless drive, reduction in single use plastic
- In summer 2021, 39 new trees planted on campus
- Member of the national Stc Trees for Life project

4 QUALITY EDUCATION

- 491 Doctors and 1,125 Nurses Alumni working in Bahrain
- 12 graduate recipients of the Dr Henry Hutchinson Stewart Scholarships and Prizes since 2014
- Accreditation by the Irish Medical Council, the Bahrain Quality Authority, the Higher Education Council of Bahrain, and external quality assurance in collaboration with the Quality and Qualifications Ireland.

11 SUSTAINABLE CITIES AND COMMUNITIES

- Health Education: over 4,800 children tutored on Type II diabetes prevention since 2012
- Agreement with Royal Life Saving Bahrain for drowning prevention and water safety signed in November 2021
- WHO Healthy Cities MOU signed with Muharraq Governorate in February 2022

5 GENDER EQUALITY

- 60% of full-time personnel are female, 53% of female personnel pursued higher education (Masters / Doctoral degree) or enrolment with professional membership / Fellowship

9 INDUSTRY, INNOVATION AND INFRASTRUCTURE

- Introducing a Technology Enhanced Learning incubator to research E-learning and Educational Neuroscience

7 AFFORDABLE AND CLEAN ENERGY

- Launch of the Solar Farm project in June 2022 covering 12,000sqm with estimated electricity production: 3.54 MWh yearly, representing circa 60% of current electricity consumption and an Annual C02 savings of 2,247 metric tonnes/year